

I definitely support the effort of the Rules Advisory Committee to require greater information disclosure by mortgage creditors. I also believe that a payment history should be provided by a mortgage lender as well as a complete chain of title. More information will bring clarity and understanding to the debtor regarding their case. It will also be easier to identify errors and miscalculations by the mortgage lender, that very often are the reason debtors seek to file bankruptcy.

--

Yvonne V. Valdez
Associate Attorney
Guzman Law Firm
8225 Gulf Freeway
Houston, Texas 77017
Tel: 713-378-9900
Fax: 713-378-9977